WE ARE PENN STATE
For information about our campuses and requirements visit admissions.psu.edu/campuses

For information about application requirements and more, visit admissions.psu.edu

If so, submit an application!

A complete application includes:

- An online application
- Self-Reported Academic Record (SRAR)
- SAT/ACT test scores, if desired

Penn State received 5 out of 5 stars as an overall campus pride index score. The Campus Pride Index is a national nonprofit organization for student leaders and campus groups working to improve LGBTQ+ environments at colleges and universities.

Penn State has the opportunities and resources to allow you to explore many different interests while obtaining a high-quality education. With more than 275 majors, we have something for everyone.

For information about majors and additional requirements, visit admissions.psu.edu/majors

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

Penn State Athletics: With twenty undergraduate campuses, Penn State has a wide array of sports teams including Division I, II, and III, intramural teams, and club sports.

Penn State Athletics: Founded in 1855 as “The Farmers High School” Penn State has a long history of traditions and values that help make up who we are today.

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

Penn State received 5 out of 5 stars as an overall campus pride index score. The Campus Pride Index is a national nonprofit organization for student leaders and campus groups working to improve LGBTQ+ environments at colleges and universities.

Penn State has the opportunities and resources to allow you to explore many different interests while obtaining a high-quality education. With more than 275 majors, we have something for everyone.

For information about majors and additional requirements, visit admissions.psu.edu/majors

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

Penn State Athletics: With twenty undergraduate campuses, Penn State has a wide array of sports teams including Division I, II, and III, intramural teams, and club sports.

Penn State Athletics: Founded in 1855 as “The Farmers High School” Penn State has a long history of traditions and values that help make up who we are today.

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.