TAKE YOUR NEXT STEPS

When it comes to applying for financial aid, there’s a lot to think about. Use the following checklist and timeline (reverse of this card) to help guide you as you consider your financial aid options.

Financial Aid To-Do’s

☐ Spend an hour a week searching for scholarships. It’s worth your time because the payoff may be dollars that can reduce your costs toward college. Follow the Office of Student Aid on Facebook (/PennStateOfficeofStudentAid) and Twitter (PSU_OSA) for notifications about outside scholarship opportunities.

☐ Complete your FAFSA at fafsa.ed.gov. Submit it to Penn State by December 1 for maximum financial aid consideration.

☐ Find a credit-worthy cosigner. You’re looking for someone who has both a good credit history and the financial resources to repay any loans you may apply for.

Financial Aid Timeline

OCTOBER 1
The first date the FAFSA is available at fafsa.ed.gov to be completed and submitted

FEBRUARY
Financial aid packages are released to incoming first-year students who submitted a FAFSA to Penn State by December 1; aid notifications continue throughout the academic year

LATE JUNE
Aid packages are released to returning students

EARLY AUGUST
Tuition billing begins for the fall semester

EARLY DECEMBER
Tuition billing begins for the spring semester

JUNE/JULY
Tuition billing begins for incoming first-year students attending Summer Session after a student attends New Student Orientation and registers for Summer Session classes

DECEMBER 1
The date the FAFSA should be submitted to Penn State by first-year admitted students for maximum aid consideration

MAY 1
The date the FAFSA and state grant form must be submitted to be considered for the PA State Grant
INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE

A Penn State education is an investment in your future.

Like any investment, there are up-front costs paid in anticipation of long-term gains and benefits. Student financial aid—educational loans, scholarships, grants, and work-study positions—can help with those costs.

For most Penn State students, personal savings, tuition savings plans, student summer employment, and Penn State’s payment plan, in combination with student financial aid, pay for their education.

We encourage you and your family to explore a variety of financing strategies to come up with a sound plan that will make a Penn State degree a reality for your future.

Applying for Student Financial Aid

To be considered for most student aid, all Penn State students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), a form accepted universally by U.S. colleges and universities to determine a student's eligibility for financial aid. At Penn State, submission of the FAFSA qualifies students for consideration for all four types of student financial aid—grants, loans, scholarships, and work-study.

Penn State’s Federal School Code: 003329

How Eligibility is Determined

The amount of financial aid awarded is based on the following:

- The information submitted on the FAFSA
- The information submitted on the admission application
- The amount of funding available
- The number of available endowed scholarships
- The number of students attending Penn State

The Aid Award

Student aid is awarded in the form of loans, grants, scholarships, and work study. Most students can expect to receive a $5,500 Federal Student Loan as one, if not the only, source of assistance.* Students and families are responsible for covering the remaining educational costs. This difference is generally covered by additional loans, which means your credit will be taken into account. The graph to the right shows the amount you can expect to cover each year. Parent PLUS and Private Alternative Loans are available to those who qualify.

For more information, go to studentaid.psu.edu.

Students will receive an email notification prompting them to view their Award Summary online.

*Federal loans are not guaranteed

The Bill

The Office of the Bursar, bursar.psu.edu, manages tuition billing.

The Student Account Statement will reflect University charges minus anticipated student financial aid. These charges include tuition, fees, and residence hall expenses, if applicable.

Penn State offers an installment payment plan: bursar.psu.edu

*For Pennsylvania residents, campus tuition and fees range from $13,342-$15,198. Go to tuition.psu.edu for more information.

*For Non-Pennsylvania residents, campus tuition and fees range from $21,366-$24,450. Go to tuition.psu.edu for more information.
Additional Facts about Scholarships

- Approximately 15% of first-year students who attend Penn State receive private scholarship support from their high school, community organizations, church groups, local companies, or other philanthropies.
- Both Pennsylvania and non-Pennsylvania residents receive equal scholarship consideration.
- First-year students accepted to the highly selective Schreyer Honors College, shc.psu.edu, are awarded an Academic Excellence Scholarship of $5,000 per academic year.
- Typical Penn State scholarships are between $1,500 to $4,000 per year.

Cost of Attendance (COA) is a budget for billable expenses such as tuition and fees, room and meals (on-campus) and non-billable expenses such as room and meals (off-campus), books and supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses.

Grants
A sum of money granted by an organization that does not have to be repaid, typically for a particular purpose.

- Students who submit the FAFSA are automatically considered for federal and University grants.
- Note for Pennsylvania residents: Completion of the FAFSA and the state grant form by May 1 will automatically qualify you for consideration for a Pennsylvania State Grant.

Work-Study
Federally or state-funded on-campus employment

- Money is earned as the student works. Unlike other aid sources, work-study is not applied directly toward the tuition bill. The student will receive biweekly pay and can earn pay up to the total of the work-study award amount.
- Average work hours per week: 15-20.

Scholarships
A sum of money awarded on the basis of need and/or merit that does not need to be repaid.

- Penn State does not offer standard merit awards for students who fit particular profiles.
- All students who submit the FAFSA are automatically considered for scholarships awarded by the Office of Student Aid.
- Academic colleges, campuses, and administrative units may require a separate scholarship application. For more details, visit studentaid.psu.edu.

Loans
A sum of money that is expected to be paid back with interest.

Private Alternative Loans
- Private alternative loans are managed through private lenders. The loans are issued in the student’s name and require a creditworthy co-signer. Eligibility, rates, terms, and conditions vary.

Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan
- Eligible students may borrow up to $5,500 in Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loans their first year, $6,500 in the second year, and $7,500 each year thereafter.
- No credit check or co-signer is required for students to borrow Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan funds. Students who submit a FAFSA are automatically considered for the loan and must accept the loan terms in order to receive the funds.
- Loan payments for the Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan are deferred while the student is enrolled at least half-time.

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan
- Parents of dependent students who are eligible for a Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan can borrow up to the student’s total cost of attendance minus all other financial aid.
- Parents can request a deferment on the Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan while the student is enrolled at least half-time as an undergraduate.
- Eligibility requirements, application information, and current interest rates are available at studentaid.psu.edu.
