A Penn State education is an investment in your future.

Like any investment, there are up-front costs paid in anticipation of long-term gains and benefits. Student financial aid—educational loans, scholarships, grants, and work-study positions—can help with those costs.

Most Penn State students use student financial aid in combination with personal savings, tuition savings plans, student summer employment, and Penn State’s payment plan to pay for their education.

We encourage you and your family to explore a variety of financing strategies to come up with a sound plan that will make a Penn State degree a reality for your future.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT THE 2+2 PLAN?

ROUGHLY 50 PERCENT OF STUDENTS SPEND THEIR FIRST TWO YEARS AT ONE CAMPUS, THEN TRANSITION TO ANOTHER CAMPUS TO FINISH THEIR DEGREE.

WE CALL IT THE 2+2 PLAN. IT’S THE MOST COMMON PATH TO A PENN STATE DEGREE, AND THERE ARE SIGNIFICANT COST-SAVINGS ASSOCIATED WITH IT.

SAVE $6,400–$20,000 PER YEAR DEPENDING ON YOUR CAMPUS OF CHOICE

Know Your Options

Types of Student Aid

Grants
A sum of money granted by an organization that does not have to be repaid, typically for a particular purpose.

- Students who submit the FAFSA are automatically considered for federal and University grants.
- Note for Pennsylvania residents: Completion of the FAFSA and the state grant form by May 1 will qualify you for consideration for a Pennsylvania State Grant.

Work-Study
Federally or state-funded on-campus employment.

- Money is earned as the student works. Unlike other aid sources, work-study is not applied directly toward the tuition bill. The student will receive biweekly pay and can earn pay up to the total of the work-study award amount.
- Average work hours per week: 15-20.

Scholarships
A sum of money awarded on the basis of need and/or merit that does not need to be repaid.

- Penn State does not offer standard merit awards for students who fit particular profiles.
- All students who submit the FAFSA are automatically considered for scholarships awarded by the Office of Student Aid.
- Academic colleges, campuses, and administrative units may require a separate scholarship application.

Loans
A sum of money that is expected to be paid back with interest.

Private Alternative Loans
- Private alternative loans are managed through private lenders. The loans are issued in the student's name and require a creditworthy co-signer. Eligibility, rates, terms, and conditions vary.

Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan
- Eligible students may borrow up to $5,500 in Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loans during their first year, $6,500 in the second year, and $7,500 each year thereafter until they reach their undergraduate lifetime limit of $31,000.
- No credit check or co-signer is required for students to borrow Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan funds. Students who submit a FAFSA are automatically considered for Federal Direct Loans. These loans require the student to accept loan terms in order to receive the funds.
- Loan payments for the Federal Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan are deferred while the student is enrolled at least half-time.

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan
- Parents of dependent undergraduate students who are eligible for a Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan can borrow up to the student's total cost of attendance minus all other financial aid.
- Parents can request a deferment on the Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan while the student is enrolled at least half-time as an undergraduate.
- Eligibility requirements, application information, and current interest rates are available at studentaid.psu.edu.
- Parents can apply for the Parent PLUS Loan on studentaid.gov.

Applying for Student Financial Aid

To be considered for most student aid, we recommend Penn State students complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), a form accepted universally by U.S. colleges and universities to determine a student's eligibility for financial aid. At Penn State, submission of the FAFSA qualifies students for consideration for all four types of student financial aid—grants, loans, scholarships, and work-study.

Penn State's Federal School Code: 003329

How Eligibility is Determined

The amount of financial aid awarded is based on the following:

- The information submitted on the FAFSA
- The information submitted on the admission application
- The amount of funding available
- The number of available endowed scholarships
- The number of students attending Penn State

The Aid Award

Student aid is awarded in the form of loans, grants, scholarships, and work study. Most students can expect to receive a $5,500 Federal Student Loan as one, if not the only, source of assistance.* Students and families are responsible for covering the remaining educational costs. This difference is generally covered by additional loans, which means a credit-worthy co-signer may be necessary. The graph to the right shows the amount you can expect to cover each year. Parent PLUS and Private Alternative Loans are available to those who qualify.

For more information, go to studentaid.psu.edu.

Students will receive an email notification prompting them to view their Award Summary online.

*Federal loans are not guaranteed

The Bill

The Office of the Bursar, bursar.psu.edu, manages tuition billing.

The Student Account Statement will reflect University charges minus anticipated student financial aid. These charges include tuition, fees, and residence hall expenses, if applicable.

Penn State offers an installment payment plan: bursar.psu.edu

TAKE YOUR NEXT STEPS

When it comes to applying for financial aid, there’s a lot to think about. Use the following checklist and timeline to help guide you as you consider your financial aid options.

Financial Aid To-Do’s

- Spend an hour a week searching for scholarships. It’s worth your time because the payoff may be dollars that can reduce your costs toward college. Follow the Office of Student Aid on Facebook (/PennStateOfficeofStudentAid) and Twitter (PSU_OSA) for notifications about outside scholarship opportunities.
- Complete your FAFSA at studentaid.gov. Submit it to Penn State by December 1 for maximum financial aid consideration.
- Find a credit-worthy cosigner. You’re looking for someone who has both a good credit history and the financial resources to repay any loans you may apply for.
