MEET GILLIAN

Gillian is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in Anthropological Science and Global and International Studies.

Gillian is involved in Club Cross Country, Club Cross Country Benefiting THON, and EcoReps. After graduation, she plans to work in conservation, sustainability, archaeology, and cultural resource management.

“The College of the Liberal Arts has allowed me to pursue my passions and has taught me to think creatively and interdisciplinary. That has become a strength of mine, which I value in my personal and professional life. I believe the broad knowledge of many different subjects Liberal Arts has given to me allows me to succeed in many different work environments from education to sustainability to research.”
