

Chinese

MEET LEO

Leo is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in Chinese and Finance.

As an international student who speaks four languages, Leo has had unique opportunities all over the world. After graduating from high school in Panama, he lived in Shanghai for seven months, where he stayed with a host family and took an intensive Chinese writing and speaking course.

Leo is the president of Happy Valley VC, a student-run organization fostering a community of aspiring and experienced student, faculty, and alumni entrepreneurs. He has also served as president of the Global China Connection Penn State chapter and was a founding member of the inaugural blueStart Festival.

PennState
College of the Liberal Arts

Chinese

DEGREE OPTIONS

- Bachelor of Arts Bachelor of Science
- Minor Concentrations

OUT-OF-CLASSROOM EXPERIENCES

Internships

Students in this major have interned with companies such as:

- AlphaSites
- Penn State's Division of Development and Alumni Relations
- Imerys
- Involve Education
- Bank of America

Education Abroad

Popular destinations for students in this major:

- China
- South Korea
- Japan
- Austria

COURSEWORK

Opportunities to explore the following topics:

- Chinese film
- Culture in China
- Gender and sexuality in China

POST-GRADUATION OPPORTUNITIES

Continuing Education

- Medical school
- Graduate school to study criminology, Chinese, developmental and stem cell biology, history, accounting, or marketing

Alumni Industries

- Education
- Consulting
- Management
- Finance
- Sales

Penn State Asian Studies Group

To learn more about
the major, visit
ASIAN.LA.PSU.EDU.

