MEET EMMA

Emma is a Paterno Fellow and Schryer Scholar majoring in Communication Arts and Sciences and Global and International Studies with a minor in Spanish.

Emma is the secretary general of the Pennsylvania High School United Nations Conference and works with the Schreyer Honors College Career Development Program to provide resources for students interested in social impact careers. She is also an orientation leader for Schreyer Honors College and AURORA, Penn State's outdoor orientation program. After graduation, Emma plans to work on social justice issues and immigration reform at a national-level foundation or nonprofit.

“My Liberal Arts education has helped me become a lifelong learner. It instilled a curiosity for all things that will shape my future career and goals.”
