MEET HAMZA

Hamza is majoring in International Politics and Economics.

The international student recently interned with Swiss Re America Holding Corporation. Hamza received financial support through the Chapel Executive Internship Program to participate in this internship. He learned about the Chapel Executive Internship while meeting with a career coach in the Liberal Arts Career Enrichment Network.

“The College of the Liberal Arts really cares about its students and the journey they are going through. It gives you an indication that the college has a holistic look for its students. It’s not just about academics—they also care about your extracurriculars and gaining professional experience.”
