MEET JILLIAN

Jillian is majoring in Philosophy and Economics.

She has a passion for social justice, equity, ethics, and community service, and at Penn State, she has been uplifting the experiences of fellow Black students. Jillian served as the student representative on the Committee on Diversity, Inclusion, and Transformation in the College of the Liberal Arts, which advises the dean on policies, initiatives, and procedures that encourage inclusion and diverse representation among Liberal Arts students, faculty, and staff.

Jillian interned at the Walt Disney Company in the corporate governance department. She plans to attend law school to follow her dream of becoming an entertainment lawyer.
