MEET WILLIAM

Will is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in Russian and International Politics.

At Penn State, Will has served as president of the Russian Club and service chair for Orthodox Christian Fellowship. He was a Russian studies intern at the American Enterprise Institute and a Russia team intelligence analyst intern at the Institute for the Study of War.

“The College of the Liberal Arts has taught me how to think, as expressed by David Foster Wallace. It taught me how to exercise some control over what I think about and gave me the groundwork to form my own informed thoughts and opinions about a variety of subjects.”
