MEET LINDEN

Linden is majoring in Spanish, Journalism, and Comparative Literature.

She is involved with Lion Ambassadors and Penn State Network Television's More Than A Lion. She was also a social media intern for the Department of Comparative Literature. After graduation, Linden hopes to use her love for Spanish and writing to work in the news production industry with opportunities for travel, with hopes of ultimately pursuing a career in international journalism with beats in culture and investigative reporting.

“The many connections I have made with my peers, faculty, and alumni in the College of the Liberal Arts will continue to benefit me long into my career. The people that make up this large community at Penn State are always willing to help each other out.”
