MEET SARABETH

Sarabeth is a Paterno Fellow majoring in Women's Studies, Communication Arts and Sciences, and Philosophy.

The first collegiate chapter of the national League of Women Voters is at Penn State thanks to Sarabeth, who served as president of the organization. Sarabeth is passionate about getting students to vote, and she credits her majors with influencing her decision to start the new chapter.

Despite its name, the League of Women Voters is open to everyone. The goal of the organization is to increase voter turnout by giving students factual, unbiased information about election candidates to aid their decisions.

Sarabeth was also a research assistant for the the Privilege, Power, and Prejudice Lab at Penn State.
